Cecilia,

Sorry for the delay in trolley service yesterday. They have always been there when requested in the past. In the future, we will also monitor any trolley request more closely.

I hope you had a successful event.

Best regards,

Lorena: again let me apologize for the service we provided yesterday. It is not the service we usually provide. Any service we did provide, there will be no charge for.

Also, in the future, any special trolley service, I will personally oversee until its completion.
